

David M. Moffett
Senior Advisor, The Carlyle Group

Fund : Global Financial Services Buyout
Industry : Financial Services

David Moffett is a Senior Advisor focused on opportunities in the global financial services sector.

Mr. Moffett retired as Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer of U.S. Bancorp in 2007 having served the company in this capacity since 1993. Moffett was responsible for all the company's financial management responsibilities including corporate accounting and reporting, tax credit investments, insurance, real estate, purchasing, treasury, venture capital, corporate real estate, media and investor relations, strategic planning, pension management, and mergers and acquisitions. From 1998 to 2001 he was also responsible for the company's asset management, wealth management, trust, and fiduciary activities.

Prior to joining U.S. Bancorp, Mr. Moffett was a Senior Vice President and Assistant Treasurer in Corporate Treasury at BankAmerica Corporation, San Francisco, CA. Moffett joined BankAmerica in 1992 as a result of the merger with Los Angeles-based Security Pacific Corporation where he served as Senior Vice President and Director of Corporate Treasury since 1990. He joined Security Pacific National Bank in 1989 as a Senior Vice President responsible for the lead bank's domestic and international treasury group.

Mr. Moffett was ranked among the top three CFOs in the banking industry in Institutional Investor Magazine, Feb. 2005.

Previously, Mr. Moffett was Chairman of the CFO Council of the Financial Services Roundtable in Washington, D.C., a Financial Services Industry Advisor of Standard & Poors Rating Service in New York, a Financial Services Industry Advisor of Moody's Rating Service in New York and a member of the CFO Roundtable, Bank Administration Institute in Chicago.

Mr. Moffett holds a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Oklahoma and a master's degree in business administration from Southern Methodist University. He is also a graduate of the Stonier Graduate School of Banking, Rutgers University. Mr. Moffett serves on the Boards of Directors of eBay, Inc., MBIA Insurance Corporation, E.W. Scripps, Inc., and Building Materials Holding Corporation. He is also affiliated with the Board of Advisors of the Michael F. Price School of Business, University of Oklahoma.