

Paul Green

Senior Vice President, Corporate Relations,
Mortgage Bankers Association

Paul Green is Senior Vice President of Corporate Relations for the Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA), serving as MBA's primary member relations contact, with responsibility for planning, developing, executing and monitoring member outreach and retention. He also oversees the meetings and conventions department, state and local initiatives and MBA's education programs under the CampusMBA brand.

Previously, Green was the Vice President of Development and Marketing for the United States Telecom Association (USTA), where he was responsible for membership recruitment and retention, conferences, meetings and seminars, sponsorships and marketing campaigns. He also served on a number of committees, including the executive committee for North America's largest telecommunications trade show, SUPERCOMM, which is co-owned by USTA.

Prior to joining USTA, Green was Senior Vice President of Marketing for the Information Technology Association of America. His association background also includes senior positions at the Institute of Scrap Recycling Industries, the National Telephone Cooperative Association and the Institute of Scrap Iron & Steel.

Green received his bachelor's degree from the University of Miami in Coral Gables, Fla. He received a master's degree in management and administration from The George Washington University.